From

The Dy Commissioner Mysore
District.

No. 36 Dated 15th July 1905

The Correspondence ending with the Dy Commissioner's letter no 36 dated 15th July 1905 relates to the Deiyaship held by one Puliyazuma Malliah in the Sre Mallikarjunaswami temple at Mundukto in the S. Narasipura Taluk. From the records it is observed as follows:—

Puliyazuma Malliah was one of the Archaks in the said temple and his term of office extended for a period of 3 months in a year. He died ^{peacefully} on the 1st of March 1905th leaving his second wife Subbamma, the first-It is reported that, wife Govamma having pre-

-deceased him on the day of his death, he sent up a petition to the Amildar, stating that his turn ^{of his} would commence on the 6th idu and praying that as he was ill, his ^{elder} brother's son Sargur Mulliah might be permitted to do duty. His request was accordingly complied with and Sargur Mulliah was doing the duty. On the 22nd March 1905th one Mullamma petitioned the Amildar stating that the deceased Balagamma Mulliah had adopted her husband (Sarmaranga) ^{her} who since died leaving a minor boy named Sivappa of 5 or 6 years old; and that the obsequies of the deceased were performed in the name of the minor; and praying therefore that the Burial, which stood in the name of the deceased, might be transferred to the name of her minor son, the duties being performed during his minority by Belakavadi Muttia the elder brother of her mother-in-law. In the course of enquiring by the Amildar, Subbaram the second wife of the deceased, deposed before that Officer on the 30th March 1905, denying all knowledge of the adoption of Kannurappa by her deceased husband, and stating that the funeral ceremonies of the deceased were performed by his brother's sons Muthappa and Chandrasekharappa. She also deposed that, even if the adoption of Kammurappa by her deceased husband were proved to be true, she was not willing to have the surname of her husband transferred to the name of his minor ^{grand} son (Sivappa) and that she wished to get it transferred to her own name, the duties being performed ^{alias} in indivine by her brother Marappa, Chenna-Vasappa (Subbanna's own brother), Prasappa, Patel of the village, and Sivappa, Gogman of the Gannadi Caste, all unanimously deposed before the Amildar, Slip A stating that the adoption ~~by~~ of Kammurappa by the deceased Poliggama Mullish was true; that the minor son Sivappa's name the obsequies of the deceased were performed; and that the statement of Subbanna was false - The Amildar Mr. F. S. Raghavachar, thereupon recommended to the Division Assistant-Commissioner, that as it was clear that the minor Sivappa was the only male Varasdar to the deceased Rajari, the Burwanid might be made in his name, the duties being performed by Marappa as agreed to by both the contending parties viz. ^{maidamma} and Subbanna - ~~Before~~ ^{He also stated} that in anticipation of sanction, he had issued passing an order on the Amildar's report, which had been received through the Division Assistant-Commissioner, Subbanna presented a petition to the Dy Commissioner on the 29th ^{April} April 1905, ^{alleging} stating that his husband had executed a will a copy of which dated 28th February 1905 (see is in the file) in favour of herself and his brother's son Malliah, transferring ^{to him} all his property, including the Leja hak in question, and requesting that, in pursuance of the said will, the Leja Buruward be made in her name, the said Malliah being permitted to do duty on her behalf. The will does not appear to have been registered.

The Dy Commr (Mr. Sparkes) thereupon issued an order to the Amildar on the 1st May 1905, directing him that, pending final orders of Government on the subject, Maridman who had been doing the work (under the orders of the Amildar), should be removed and Malliah, who was selected by the petitioner Subbaramu, be appointed temporarily as ^{her} Zamastar. He at the same time time addressed a letter to the Muzrai Secretary recommending the transfer of the Zamindari to the name of Subbanna and the appointment of Mulliah, selected by her, as her Zamindar. He also stated that, pending receipt of ^{the} Government orders, he had issued orders to the Amildar to appoint the said Mulliah as temporary Zamindar.

Before orders were passed on the Dy. Commr's communication referred to above, Mullanna, widow of Kammavaya (the alleged adopted son of the deceased Polayyanna Mulliah) presented a petition to this office on the 5th May 1905 stating that (who has no issue) Subbanna had no manner of right, title interest and claim and that her son Sivappa is the only rightful and legal claimant.

This petition is pending disposal.
In support of her allegation that her deceased husband Kannoorappa was the adopted son of the deceased Balaganna Mullaiah, she has presented to this office, through his advocate Mr. Appa Rao, a registered document ^(Sale Deed) dated 6th June 1893, executed by Balaganna Mullaiah and his adopted son Kannoorappa in favour of one Sivappa, for having sold a land of theirs

The question for decision is, who is the proper hakdar to the deceased Injuri Balaganna Mullaiah - whether Sivappa, his alleged grand-son, or Subbanna his (deceased) second wife wife; and to whose name the Rupee Rs. 1000 should be transferred.

This controversy relates to the hereditary office of Arshak of Sri Malikunmaswami temple at Mudukore of the T. Narayana Taluk. One Balayya Malli was entitled to a three months term of the office - He held it until his death which took place in March last. There has since been a dispute as to who should be appointed to succeed him, the contending parties being (1) Subbamma the widow of the deceased, & (2) Swappa the minor son of one Kunnurayya the alleged adopted son of the deceased. ^{No 1} The former claims both under the law of inheritance & under a well known to have been precludes the adoption set-up by No 2. The latter on the other hand impugns the genuineness & validity of the will and asserts that his father Kammanna was duly adopted by the deceased during the lifetime of ~~the~~^{his} first wife Gowamma who was childless and sometime before the marriage of his second wife Subbamma No 1.

A mass of evidence was adduced by both parties in support of their respective contentions.
After a careful consideration of the same & of the probabilities of the case, the Court, the Assistant Commissioner & the Dy Commissioners have all con- ~~cluded~~^{arrived} at the conclusion that the adoption relied upon by No 2 is true while the will set up by No 1 is false. No have no hesitation in established. The relation-

The Mouzrai Commissioner in Mysore Bangalore.

The Humble Petition of Mallamma the widow of Kannooraya, adopted son of Bolayana Mallaya, for herself and on behalf of her minor son Shivappa, one of the Thammadiga of the Shri Mallikarjuna Swamy Temple of Madkathorai, Thiruma Kudla Marsiper Taluk, Thelakad Hobli, Mysore District.
Most Humbly and respectfully sheweth

That the late Bola Mallaya was the Baravanda Thammadiga of the said Mallikarjuna Swamy Temple.
He not having male issue, took in adoption one Kannooraya, the deceased husband the Petitioner who has by him a son named Shivappa, a minor aged about 10 years. The said Kannooraya predeceased his adopted father, Bolayana Mallaya who died about 6 years ago.
2 months ago, i.e., in the month of February last, leaving him surviving a widow Kanna Subbamma and the Petitioner as his heirs and legal representatives. The said Bolayana Mallaya was possessed of the right to perform puja in the said Temple for a period of 3 months in two years.

The turn of the said Bolayana Mallaya for the puja having accrued, the Petitioner applied to the Amildar of T. Nasri Taluk that the Baravanda of the said puja may be transferred and conferred in the name of her minor son Shivappa aforesaid and that one Maraya, the brother of the said Subbanna may be appointed to perform the Puja during the Munori of Shivappa. On this the Amildar made full and minute enquiry in the matter as to the right of Shivappa, and in that took down the depositions of Subbanna and other relations, as also the depositions of the Potail of the village and of the Yajman of the Caste, and passed the order confirming the Baravard in Shivappa's name and directing that the Puja should be performed by Maraya, during Shivappa's Munori. (Vide order no $\frac{497}{767}$ bearing date 31st March 1895) The said Maraya accordingly entered upon his duty.

That thereupon the said Subbanna at the instigation and ill-advice of some persons inimicable to the Petitioners presented to the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore, praying that the Baravard be transferred by the Amildar in the name of minor Shivappa may be removed and be transferred and confirmed in her name and one Saragoor Mallaya may be appointed to perform the Puja. The Deputy Commissioner without calling for the previous record from the Taluk Acheary and without notice to the Amildar, has, the Petitioners are informed and believe, passed the order in compliance with the request of Subbanna and the Saragoor Mallaya has been put in charge of the Puja in anticipation of the Confirmation of the said order from your Honours Office.

The said Subbanna has no manner of right title interest and claim whatsoever in the said Puja and the Petitioners son Shivappa is the only rightful and legal claimant for the same.

The Petitioners therefore most humbly pray that the order of the Deputy Commissioner of Mysore may not be confirmed and

and and given effect to as the same is prejudicial and adverse to the legal rights of her minor son Lisappa

And will Ever Recy.

Deputy Commissioner's Office,
Mysore District,
Dated Mysore, 21st November 1905.

To

L. Anantha gowdy Pao Esquire, B.A., Secretary to the Government of Mysore, Muzaroy Department, Bangalore.

Sir,

Adverting to Government Order No. 1658 dated 27th September 1905 calling for the submission of my findings as to the truth or otherwise of the adoption relied upon by Mallamma and Shivappa and as to the genuineness or otherwise of the will relied upon by Subbamma in connection with the baraward of the 3 months' share of Archakaship in the Sri mallikarjuna swamy temple at 'Vudakathore in the T. Marsipur Taluk, I have the honor to state as follows:-

2. The records of the regular enquiry held by the Amildar of the T. Marsipur Taluk, disclose that the original adoption deed is not forth coming; that from the evidence of the several witnesses examined on behalf of Mallamma the Amildar is of opinion that the adoption should be considered a fact as the witnesses speak to a dinner having been given them in accordance with the custom prevailing in their caste and that pan supari was distributed not only among the villagers of 'Vudakathore but also among certain outsiders of neighbouring villages and other brahimins who were invited on the occasion.

3. Basavalingayya, one of the witnesses of Mallamma, has also deposed that he was engaged as a purohit for the occasion, and the alleged adoption took place in his presence in accordance with the shastras, the deed of adoption being duly attested by him.

4. A reference to the sale deed of the 6th June 1893 (copy enclosed in the file vide Pharist No. 36) produced ed by Mallamma shews that it has been executed by Bolayya-na Mallayya and his adopted son Kannurayya.

5. It is learnt that Mallayya and Chendrashekarayya whose signatures are attested to this sale deed are the same persons ~~alluded to in the will, relied upon by Subbamma. as witnesses.~~ ^{alluded to in the will, relied upon by Subbamma.}
(Vide Pharist No.34/1)

6. Subbamma's own brother Mari Devaraju and her father Chenna-Veerappah have also deposed that Kannurayya was adopted by Bolayya-na mallayya (Vide Pharist No.2/3 & 2/4)

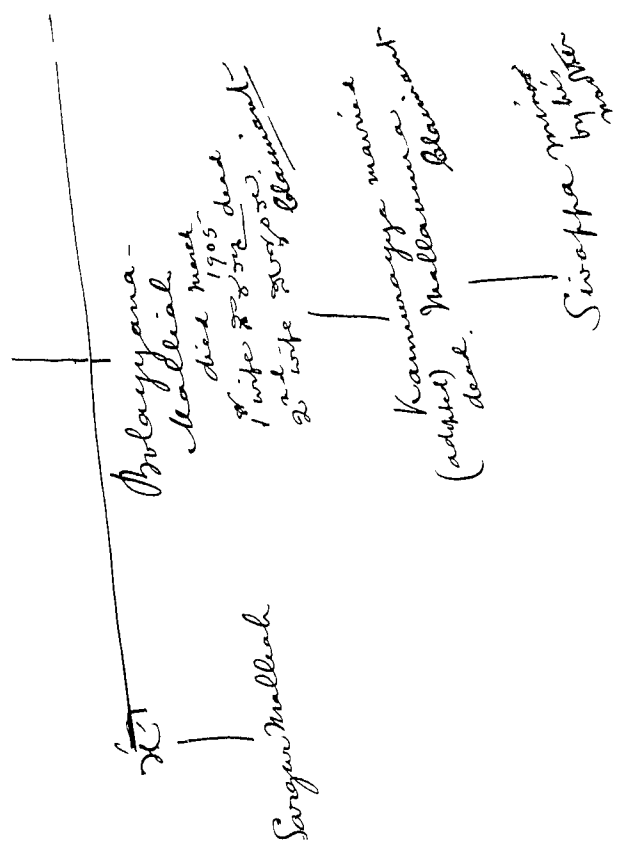

7. Although all the witnesses of Subbamma have deposed that the will is genuine, yet it may be seen that Subbamma has deposed before the Amildar that after she went, to the Shanbhogue's house and called him she did not inform him of the will being drawn up, but that the Shanbhogue brought the writing materials of his own accord, and that her husband signed the will himself without any body's support while on the contrary the shanbhogue has deposed that he first came to Bolayyana Mallayya, and on being informed that a will had to be drawn up, he returned home, and after he brought the writing materials, he wrote the will to which Bolayyana Mallayya affixed his signature, with the aid of one Rudrayya.

8. There was nothing to prevent Subbamma from producing the will relied upon by her before the Taluk Amildar at the 1st instance when Mallamma petitioned to the Taluk Amildar on the 20th March 1905 praying for the baraward of the 3 months' share of Archikaship being transferred to her minor son, or on the 30th March 1905 when her statement was taken.

9. The signature in the alleged will of Bolayyana Mallayya, who was nearly 60 years of age coupled with the fact that he was ill at the time of signing the will and died the next day after the will was drawn up, as compared with his previous shaky signature in the charge party dated 7-3-05⁰³ (Vide Pharist No.37) is very questionable.

Decision

Decision.

This controversy relates to the hereditary office of Archak of Sri Malikarjuneswara swami temple at Mudukdore of the Tarsipur Taluk. One Balaingyan Mallia was entitled to a three months' term of the office - He held it until his death which took place in March last. There has since been a dispute as to who should be appointed to succeed him, the contending parties being (1) Subbamma, the widow of the deceased, and (2) Sivappa the minor son of one Konnurayya the alleged adopted son of the deceased. No 1 claims both under the law of inheritance and, under a will said to have been left by the deceased, and he further repudiates the adoption set up by No. 2.

The latter, on the other hand impugnes both the genuineness and the validity of the will, and asserts that his father Kounuvaiyya was duly adopted by the deceased during the life-time of his first wife, Govvamma who
before the marriage of his second wife, Subbamma No 1. A ^{mass} of evidence was adduced by both parties in support of their respective Contentions.

After a careful consideration of the same and of the probabilities of the case, the Amildar, the Assistant Commissioner, and the Deputy Commissioner have all concurrently arrived at the Conclusion that the adoption relied upon by No. 2 is true while the will set up by No. 1 is false.
No. 1 disputes the correctness of this finding.

Government hold that there is overwhelming evidence of a satisfactory and credible character in proof of the adoption of No. 2's father by the deceased Bolaiyyan Mallia. A large number of respectable people were summoned and in their presence a document (not now traceable) was written and the adoption duly made. This was followed by a general feeding and by a distribution of pansupari. The adopted person subsequently lived with the adoptive father who got his marriage performed. To the last he continued to reside with the latter. Both jointly dealt with the family property in their respective capacities of father and son and is abundantly clear from a sale deed executed by them in favour of one Sivanaappa so far back as the year 1893.

The father and brother of No. 1 who are certainly not prejudiced against her ^{have themselves} admitted the adoption.
In these circumstances,

Government have no hesitation in accepting No 2's case of adoption as conclusively established.

The relationship alleged by No. 2 being thus placed beyond all reasonable doubt, it follows that he is entitled to succeed to the vacancy in preference to No. 1, and that the will, even if genuine, would not in any way affect this right.

4 And now coming to the will, Government find that the evidence offered in support of its authenticity is most conflicting and unsatisfactory. The probabilities are also decidedly unfavourable. It is a circumstance, surely proo--cative of suspicion that the will was not produced or even mentioned and ~~related~~ upon until a somewhat late stage of the proceedings. The deceased was leaving behind him a grandson by his adopted son, and there was absolutely no need for making any disposition of his property in the manner mentioned in the will.

The Amildar has clearly shown that no credence can be attached to No 1's story and the Assistant Commissioner, and the Deputy Commissioner have agreed with him. This

Concurrent finding is in the opinion of Government unassailable. The Office moreover was not a transferable property and Govt. do not see how the deceased could by any death-bed act of his exclude or disinherit his legal son heir and representative No: 2.

5. For the foregoing reasons, Govt. direct that No: 2's status be recognized and his claim allowed and that suitable temporary arrangements be made for the performance of the duties of the Office during his minority.
